

Dear Trinity! behold us here,
Who, holding thy Degree,
Still graduate, from year to year,
In greater love for thee!

Before thy Board we "passed" of old:
And now thy name we hoard,
And "pass with honours" manifold,
Before our festive board!

And pray: "May Honour dwell with thee,
As now, for ever, bright!
And all with thee 'Fare Well' as we,
For thy dear sake, to-night!"

S. K. COWAN, M.A.

DINNER OF GRADUATES

OF

TRINITY COLLEGE, DUBLIN,

IN GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL,

BELFAST,

17TH MARCH, 1898.

CHAIRMAN:

THE LORD MAYOR OF BELFAST.

MENU.

POTAGE.

Tortue Claire.

POISSON.

Turbotin, Sauce Homard.
Filet de Sole à la Remoulade.

ENTRÉES.

Noisettes de Pré Salé, à la Dubarry.
Poularde Paillée à la Villars.

RELÈVES.

Filet de Bœuf Piqué, à la Renaissance.
Dinde à l'Ivoire.
Jambon d'York au Xeres et Epinards.

LEGUMES.

Chicorées à la Flamande.
Pommes Anna.

ROT.

Canards Sauvage au Porto.

ENTREMETS.

Pouding Soufflé Saxon.

GLACE.

Plombière, Biscuits Gaufres.

SAVOURY.

Croutes à l'Ecossoise.

DESSERT.

Pine. Oranges. Apples. Nuts.
&c., &c.

Coffee.

TOASTS.

1. The Queen and the Royal Family.

Proposed by the CHAIRMAN.

2. The Lord Lieutenant and Prosperity to Ireland.

Proposed by the CHAIRMAN.

3. The University of Dublin.

Proposed by Mr. R. KYLE ROSE, LL.D.
Replied to by Professor MAHAPPY, F.T.C.D.

4. The Learned Professions.

Proposed by Professor FURBER.
Replied to by Mr. J. H. CAMPBELL, Q.C., M.P.

5. Our Guests.

Proposed by the CHAIRMAN.
Replied to by THE LORD BISHOP OF DERRY.